

2021/2022 SDC~CDS Community Wellness Assistance Program

Thanks to a partnership and funding assistance from Royal Caribbean Cruise Line (RCCL), the Skagway Development Corporation– Community Development Service (SDC-CDS) is pleased to be able to offer financial assistance for Skagway community members hoping to participate in a wellness or well-being program this winter. This program is available to Skagway residents who are 18 years in age or older. Eligible individuals may submit one (1) application requesting assistance for one (1) healthy wellbeing program that supports an individual's emotional or physical wellbeing. Assistance will not exceed fifty dollars ($50) per application. These programs may include but are not limited to: Skagway Recreation Center membership, a session with a behavioral health clinician or wellness coach, an appointment with a massage therapist or chiropractor or some other wellness or well-being service or program.

Note: Payment will be made by check. SDC-CDS will not make payment checks out to an individual applicant or to a program/ service offered by a non-licensed business. Applicants must apply before the program begins. For eligible applicants, SDC-CDS will pay the business directly and applicants are responsible for covering any remaining program costs.
