

Welcome to Shgagwei Workforce Orientation
All Events are Free and Open to the Public

Skagway Recreation Center Rummage Sale

Once a year Skagway has the biggest yard sale in the land, Forgot something in the lower 48? Come see what goodies you can find!

Friday 4/28-Sunday 4/30 @ Skagway Rec Center

History Lesson with Jeff Brady author of "Skagway City of the Century"

The history of Skagway is epic and Jeff Brady has done a masterful job of capturing it. A history lesson full of facts and info you won't want to miss!

Friday 5:00 pm 4/28 @ Klondike Brewing

Skagway Bird Club Nature Bird Walk

Skagway summer is full of the hustle and bustle, It is important to slow down and listen to the nature around you. Come on a nature walk and connect with the serenity of our mountains.

Saturday 9:00am 4/29 @ Pullen Creek Salmon Walk

Dynamics of Sexual Assault, Ways to Support a Survivor, & Understanding Consent with Saralynn from AWARE

Saralynn is here to help our community learn ways to support each other. This is a class to create a safe place for sensitive conversations and understanding how to keep our community members safe.

Saturday 5:00 pm 4/29 @ Elks Lodge

Herstory Lesson & Brothel Tour with Madam Wilma Loveall

Learn how women played a huge role in the history of Skagway! This is a special tour to give insight on how working women lived and how they shaped this town to what it is today. (Tips are encouraged for your tour Guide)

Saturday 7:30pm 4/29 @ Red Onion Saloon

Sexual Harassment Training with Saralynn from AWARE

This is a certified class for managers & employees.

By taking a certified class on sexual harassment, you can learn how to create a workplace culture that promotes diversity, inclusion, and respect for all employees.

Saturday 11:00 am 4/30 @ Elks Lodge

Intro to Disc Golf with Swazey & Cowboy

Are you ready to play? Learn how to play Disc Golf with some of Skagway's best teachers! They will show you the how to's and the what to know's of the Skagway Disc Golf Course. Already a pro? Come on out to play with the team!

Sunday 3pm 4/30 @ Seven Pastures Field

Free STD Testing Monday 5/1 -Friday 5/5 @ Dahl Memorial Clinic

Self explanatory- Get Tested- Stay Safe-

Call (907)-983-2255 to schedule an appointment

Fentanyl Safety Training

with Megan SouthEast Alaska Public Health Nurse

Fentanyl safety training can teach you how to recognize the signs of a fentanyl overdose and how to administer naloxone, a medication that can reverse the effects of an overdose and save lives.

Monday 5pm 5/1 @ Skagway Library (Community Room)

Tuesday 10:00 am 5/2 @ Skagway Rec Center (Multi Purpose Room)

Self Care Awareness

with Megan SouthEast Alaska Public Health Nurse

Feeling the burn while basking in the midnight sun? Skagway summers can take a toll, but don't let self-care become an afterthought! Join our class and learn how to prioritize yourself, because you deserve to shine as bright as the Alaskan sun.

Monday 6pm 5/1 @ Skagway Library (Community Room)

Tuesday 11:00 am 5/2 @ Skagway Rec Center (Multi Purpose Room)

Klondike Historic National Park Service History Lesson

The Klondike Historic National Park Service History Lesson is a captivating class that delves into the fascinating history of the Klondike Gold Rush. Led by knowledgeable park rangers, the class covers the impact of the gold rush on the region and Skagway's development as a gateway to the gold fields.

Tour the NPS Theatre & The Moore Homestead

Tuesday 7:00 pm 5/2 @ National Park Museum

Cultural Heritage Tourism Introduction to Shgagwei

This class takes you on a fascinating journey through the history, traditions, and customs of the Tlingit people. A unique opportunity to gain insight into the cultural heritage of Shgagwei and the Tlingit people. Don't miss out on this enriching experience!

Hosted by Skagway Visitor Department & Skagway Traditional Council

Wednesday 5/3 @ 12pm @ Traditional Council's

HÉEN AGUNATÁANI HÍT - White Caps on the Water House on 11th and Broadway

Skagway-Yukon Tourism Networking Night

Hosted by Yukon Tourism & Culture & Skagway Visitor Department

Yukon tourism business operators & owners are taking a bus to Skagway for shopping, exploration & an evening of networking with Skagway locals. Businesses from either community may sign up ahead of time for a maximum three-minute presentation describing their operation and sharing contact information.

Thursday 5/4 @ 5:30pm @ Skagway Brewing Company

Skagway Brewing Sustainable Aeroponic Garden Tours

Fresh greens in Skagway! If you are new to town you might not know the weight of that statement. Come see how you can find fresh greens and how they are grown at our local brewery.

*Tour Start Times Friday 6:00 pm & 6:30pm & Saturday 11am & 11:30am
@ Skagway Brewing Company*

Intro to PickleBall

Get active and have fun with our intro to pickleball class! Learn the basics, develop your skills, and join the fastest-growing sport in America. All skill levels are welcome.

Saturday 9:00am-11:00am 5/6/2023 @Skagway Rec Center

Hospitality Training with Tayleah from Alaska Travel Association

Give your employees foundational skills and/or a refresher on key customer service aspects to help them prepare for this busy summer!

Saturday 2:00 pm 5/6 @ AB Hall

Closing Night Storytelling & Campfire

End your day on a high note! Gather around the fire and listen to captivating stories of the region, shared by our knowledgeable and entertaining local guides. Roast marshmallows, and enjoy the warmth of the fire as you immerse yourself in the beauty of the Alaskan wilderness. Don't miss out on this unforgettable experience - join us for our Closing Night Storytelling & Campfire."

Sunday 6pm -5/7 @ Yakutania Point